Gentlemen,

This was the last update I had on the FDOT A1A project timing, but as I said, there may be a temporary location within the barricaded area that could be used until the project with the service road is completed.

Best regards,

Hi Mabel:

We checked with FDOT and the new bus pull-in for the Route 55 Bus on A1A will be completed this Spring, 2017. When completed, this will allow the Route 55 Bus to move from its current layover location on A1A near the McDonalds (NB) to its new location on A1A near Commercial. When this move takes place, the Route 72 Bus can move its layover on Galt to its final layover location on A1A near the McDonalds.

So, we really don't have any changes we can make at this point until the construction is complete in the Spring.

Tim
